Bread and Puppet

White Horse Butcher

The Janus Press Vermont 1977

Ladies and Gentlemen!

Have a cup of coffee!

I am the White Horse Butcher and I escaped from the Devil!

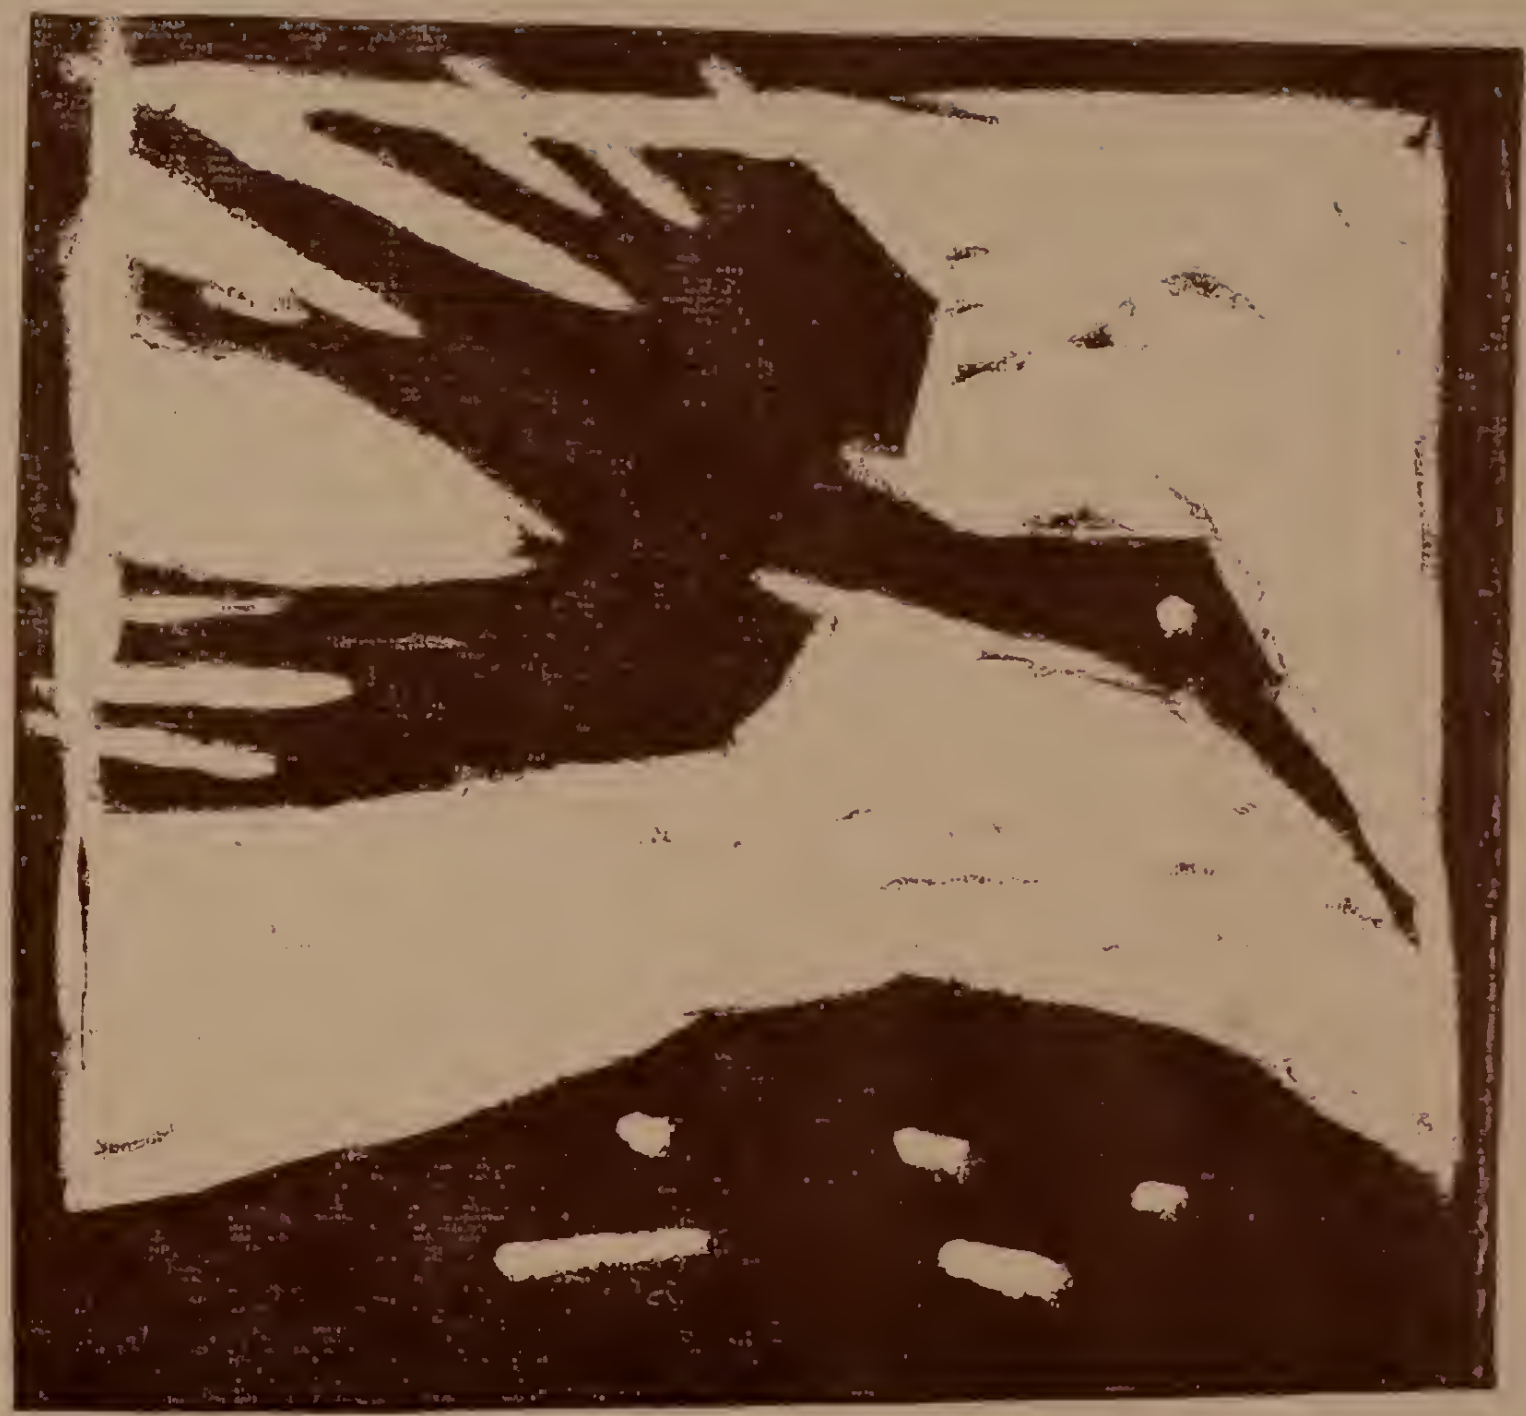
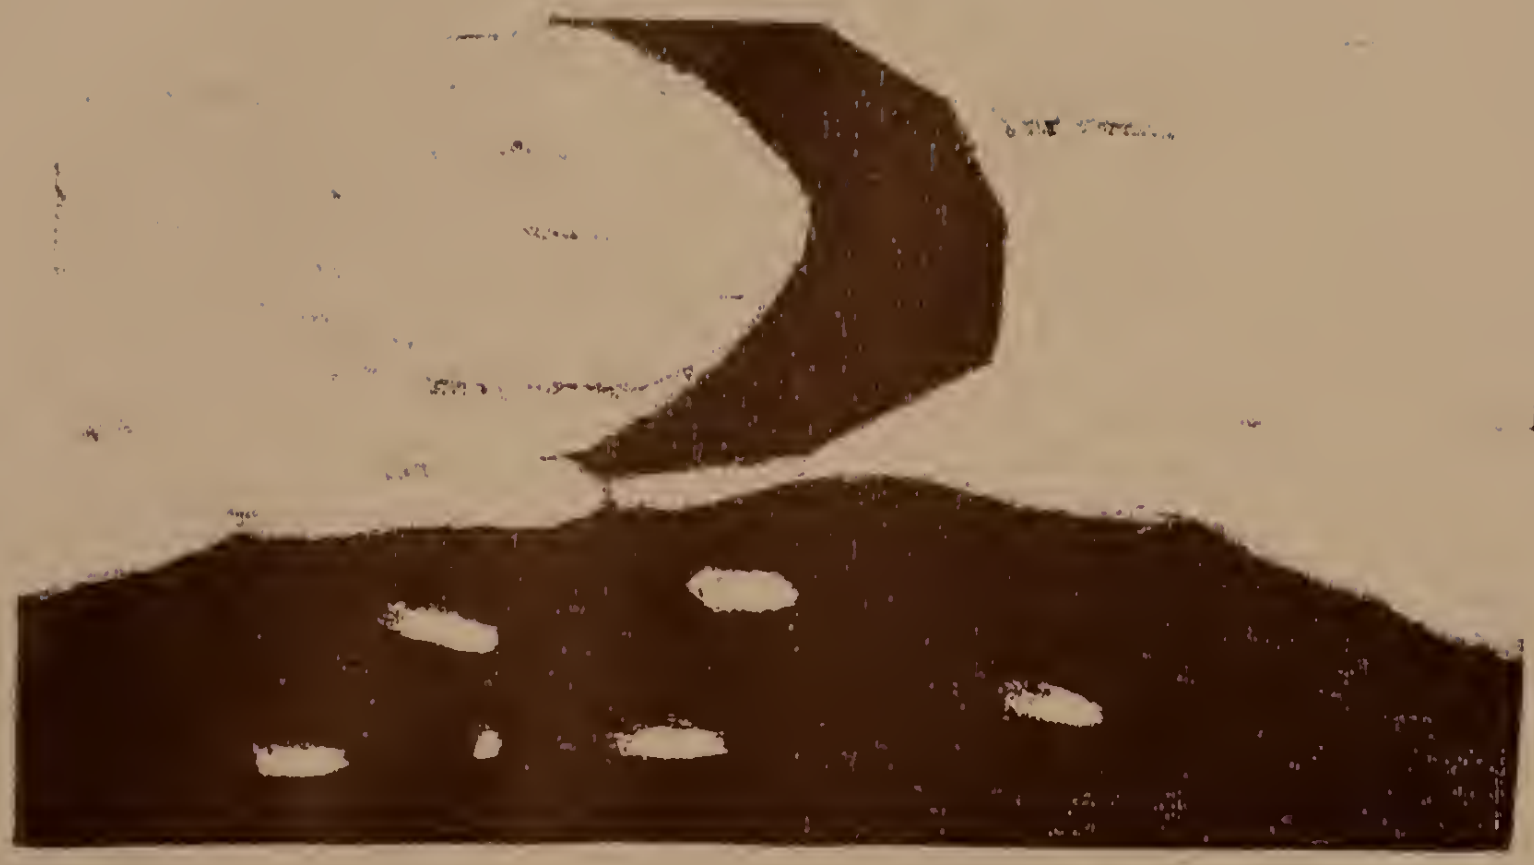
I sailed over the sea



I traveled over the hills



by night

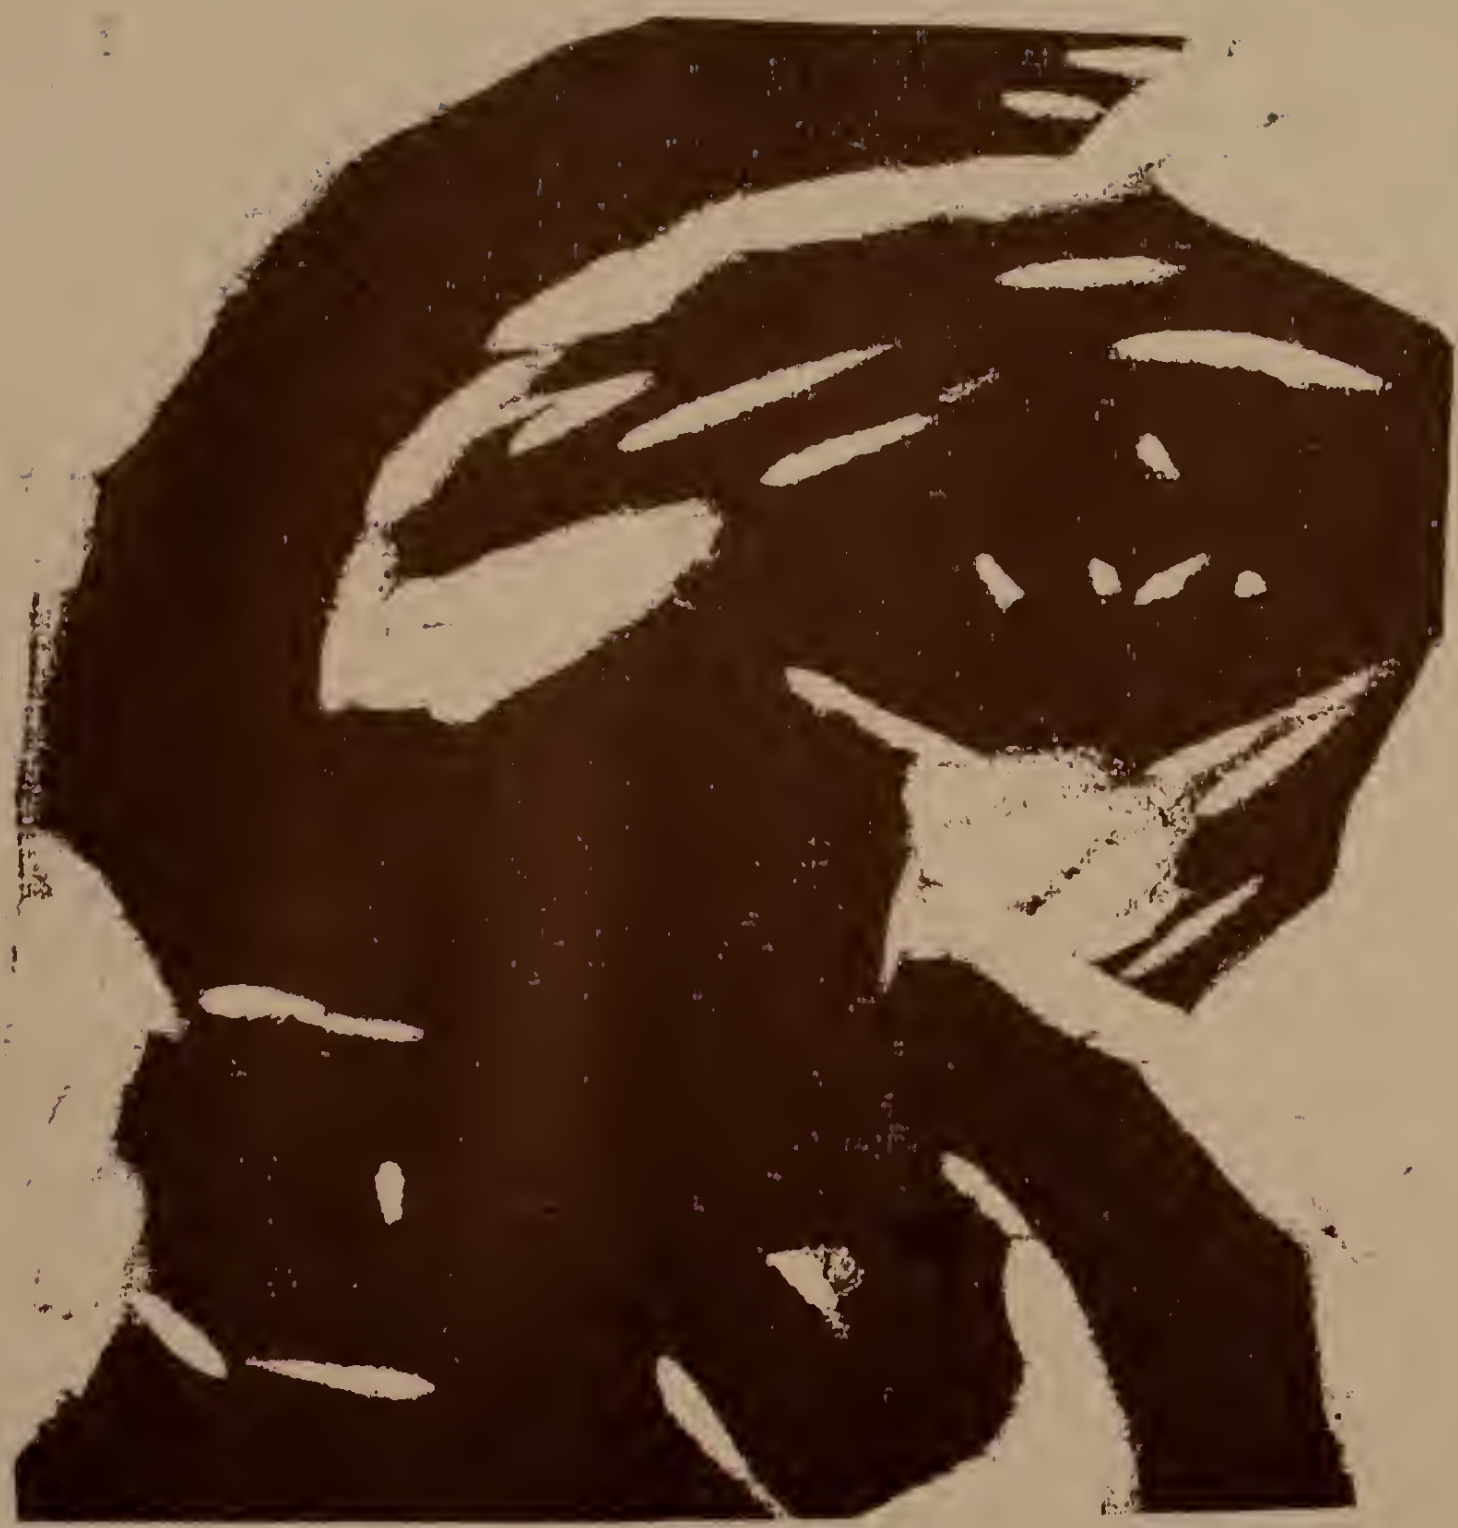
and day

I stopped here

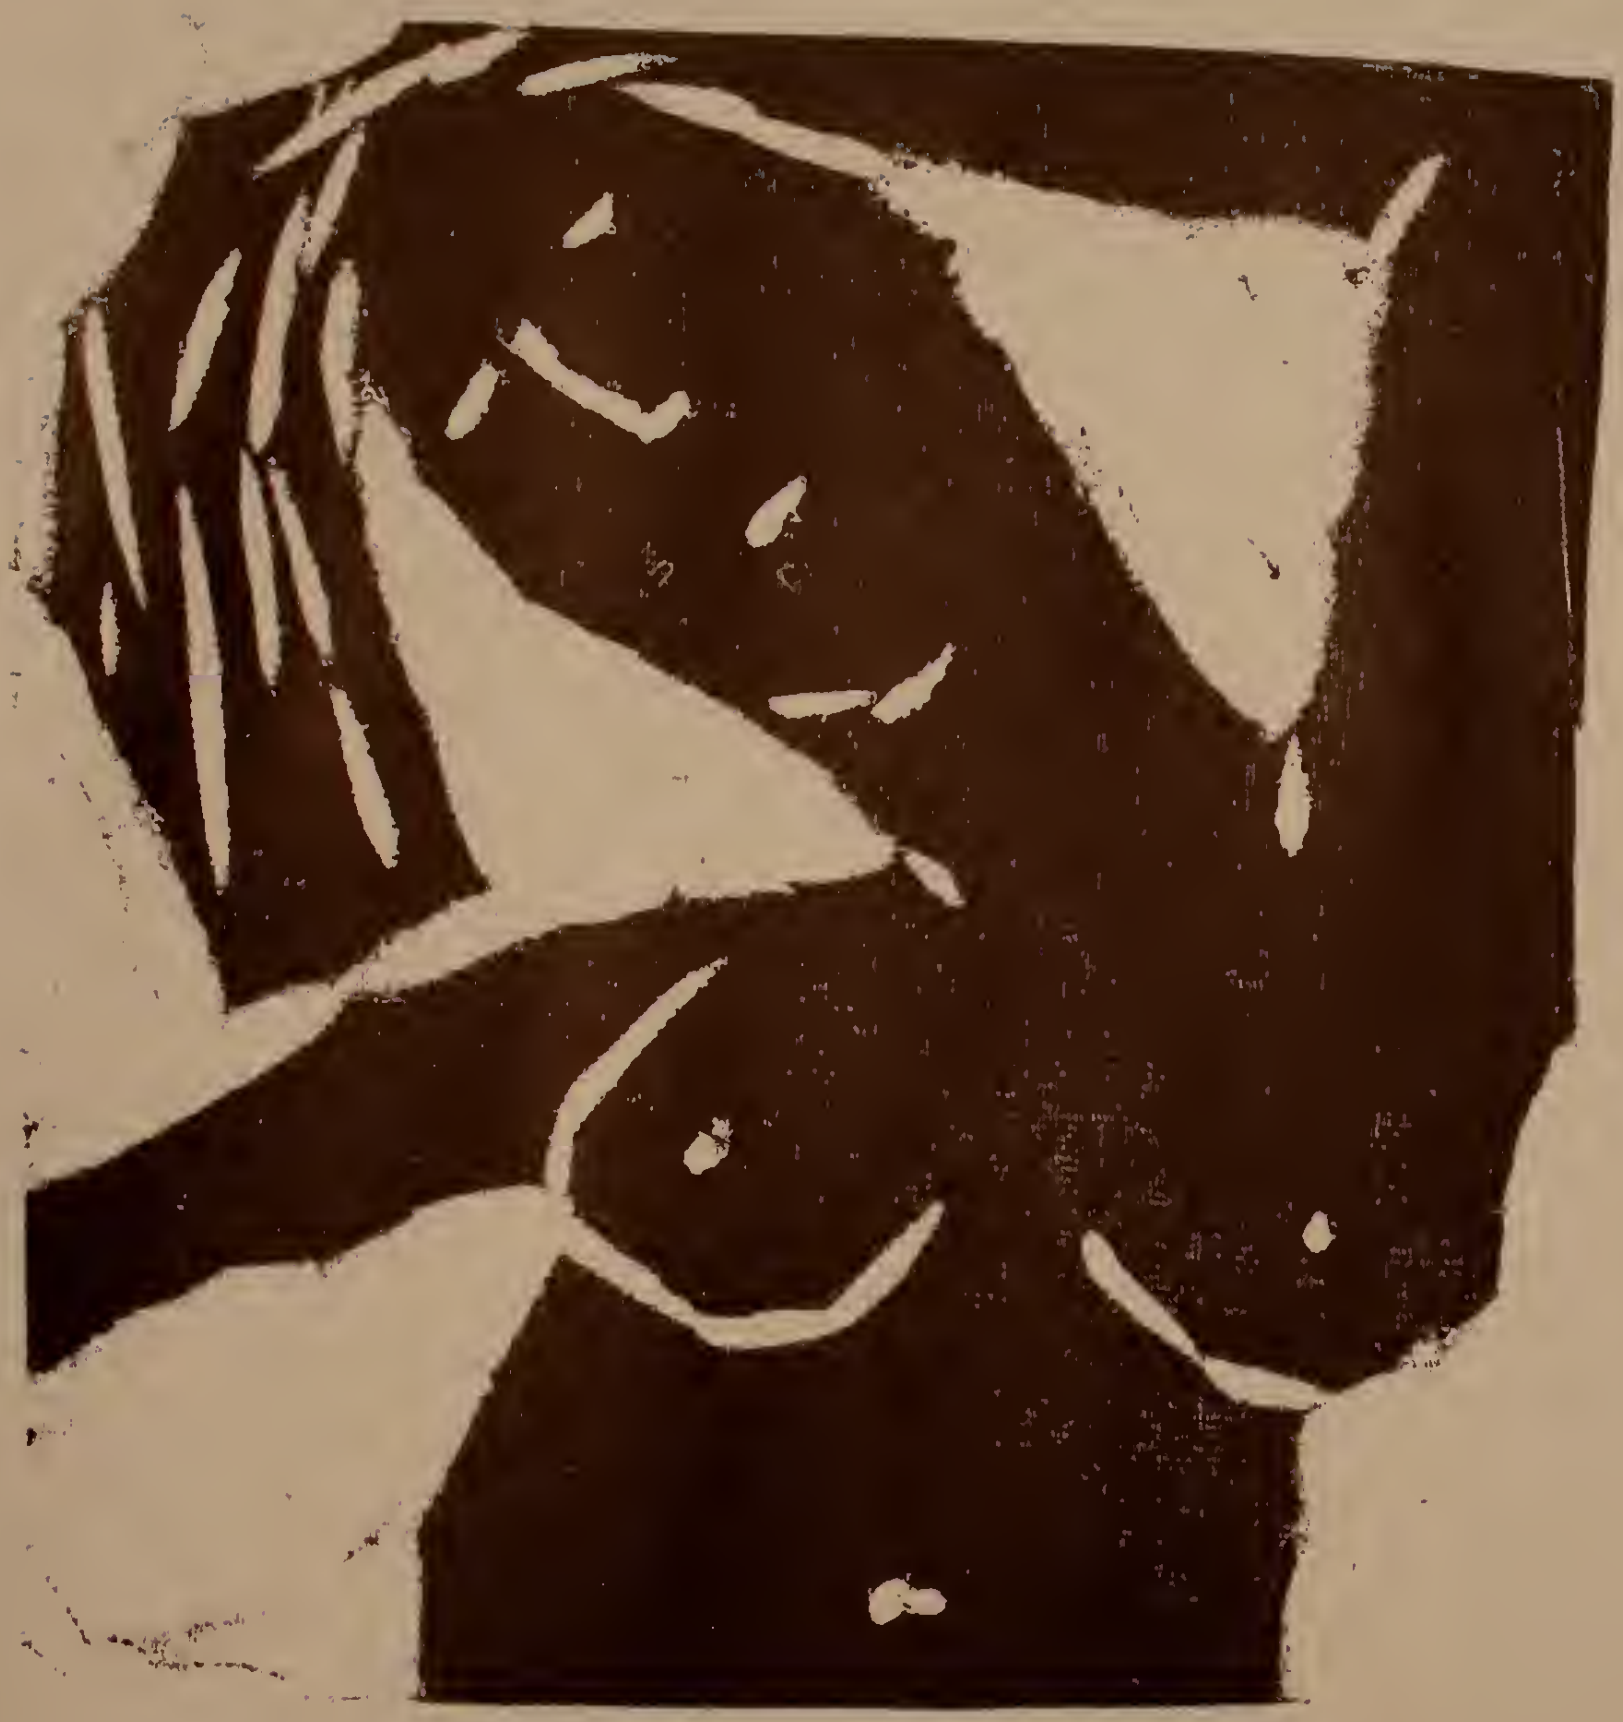
stepped into the house

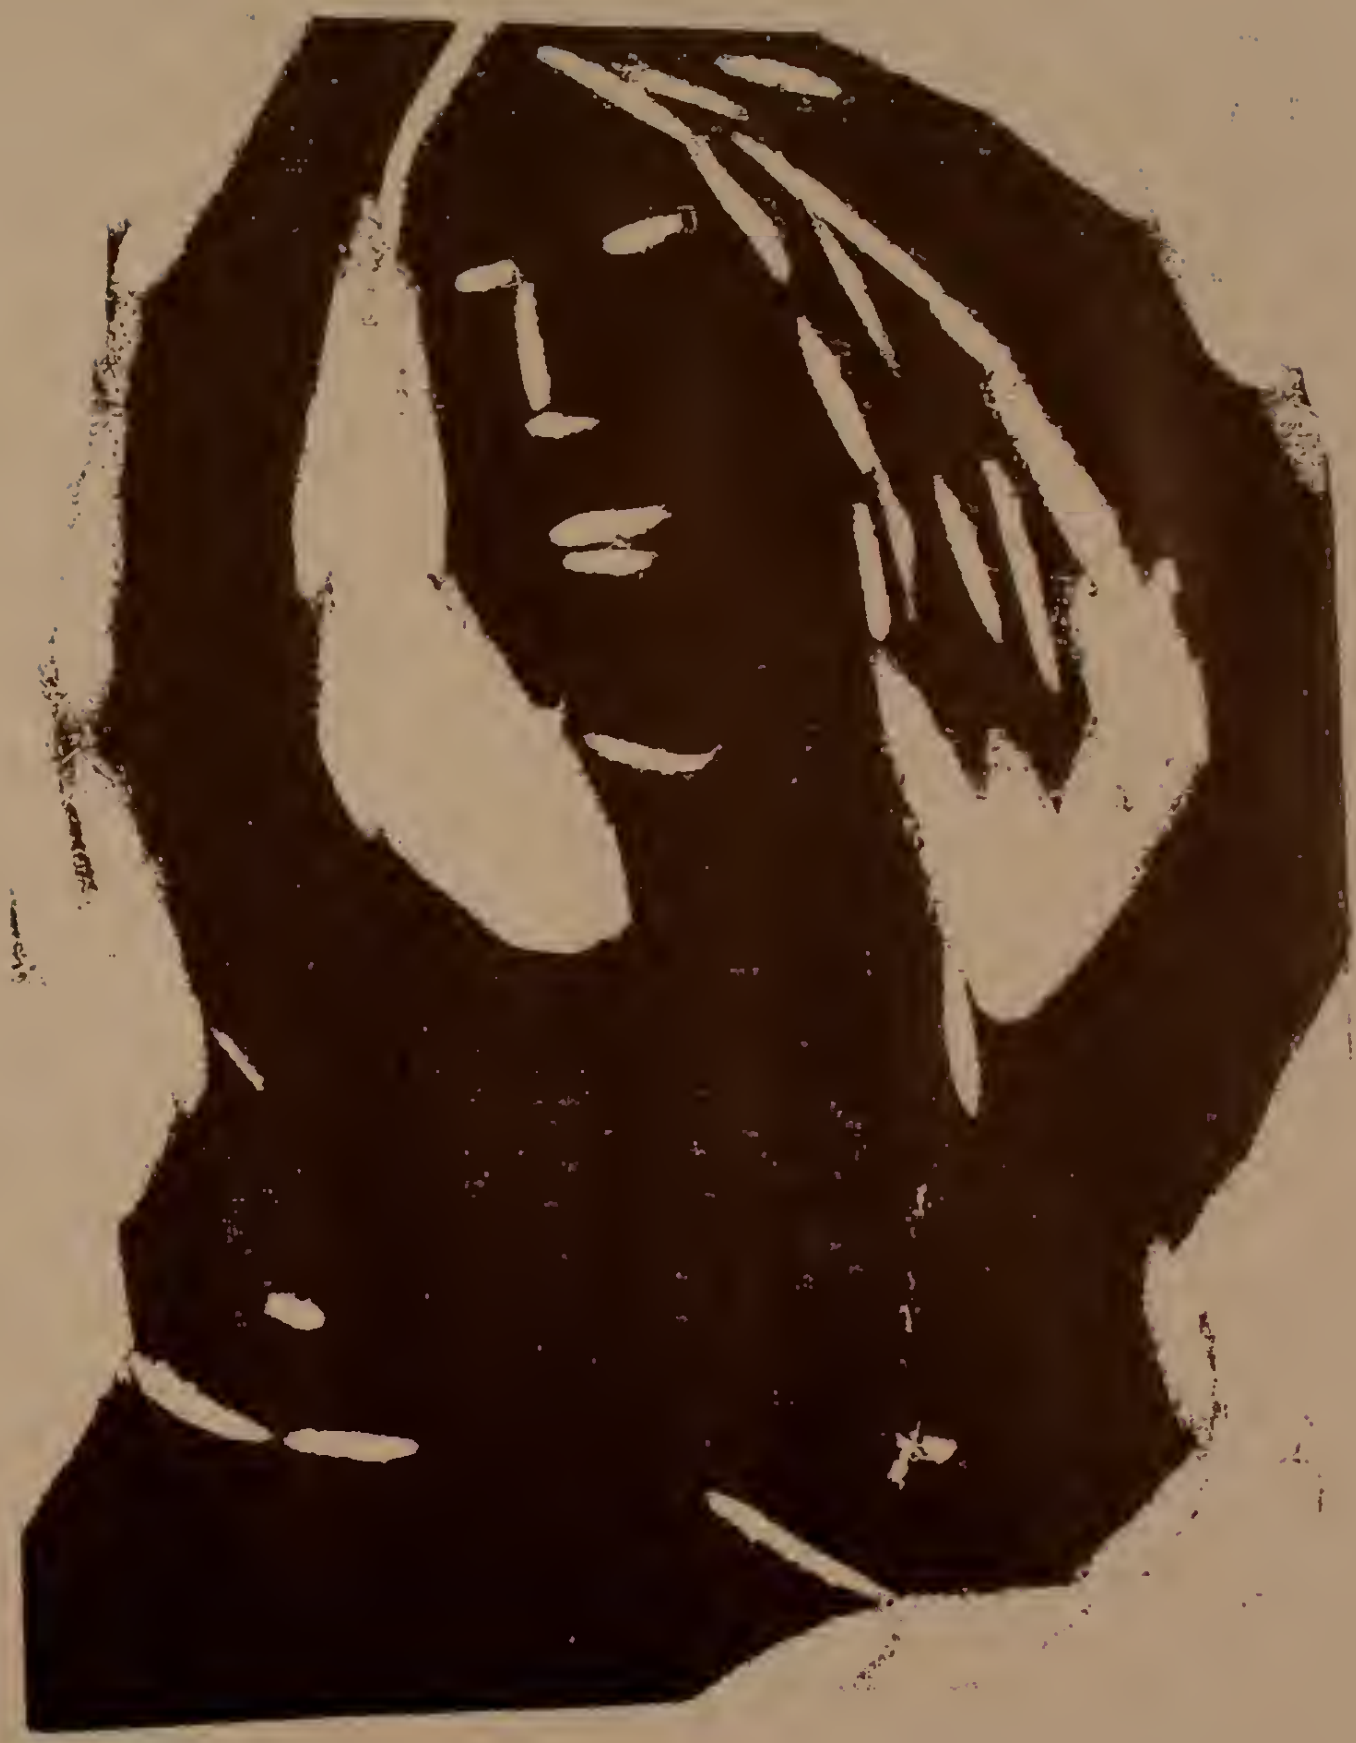
met the Lady

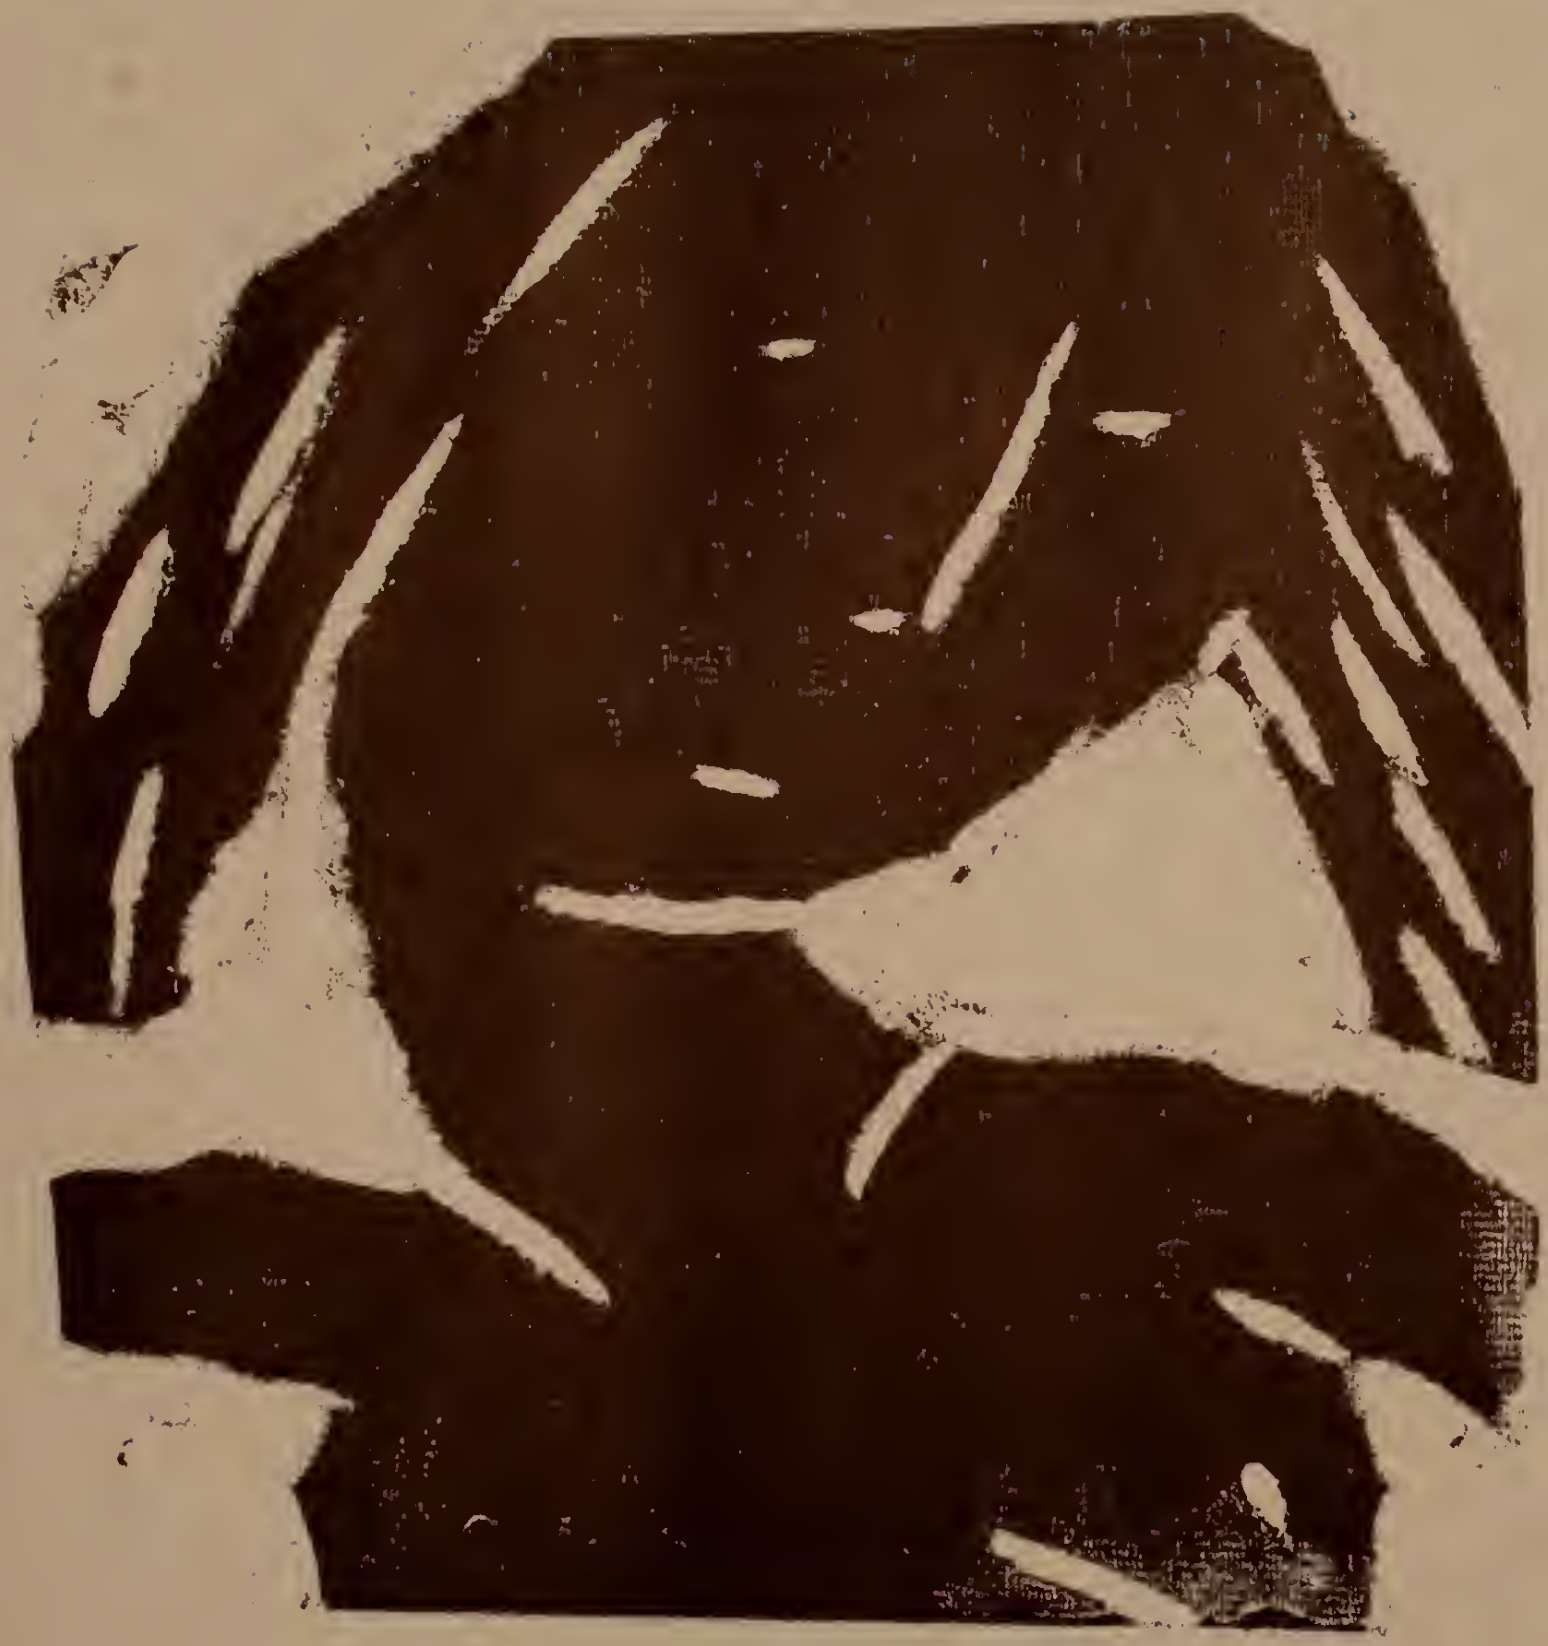
loved her



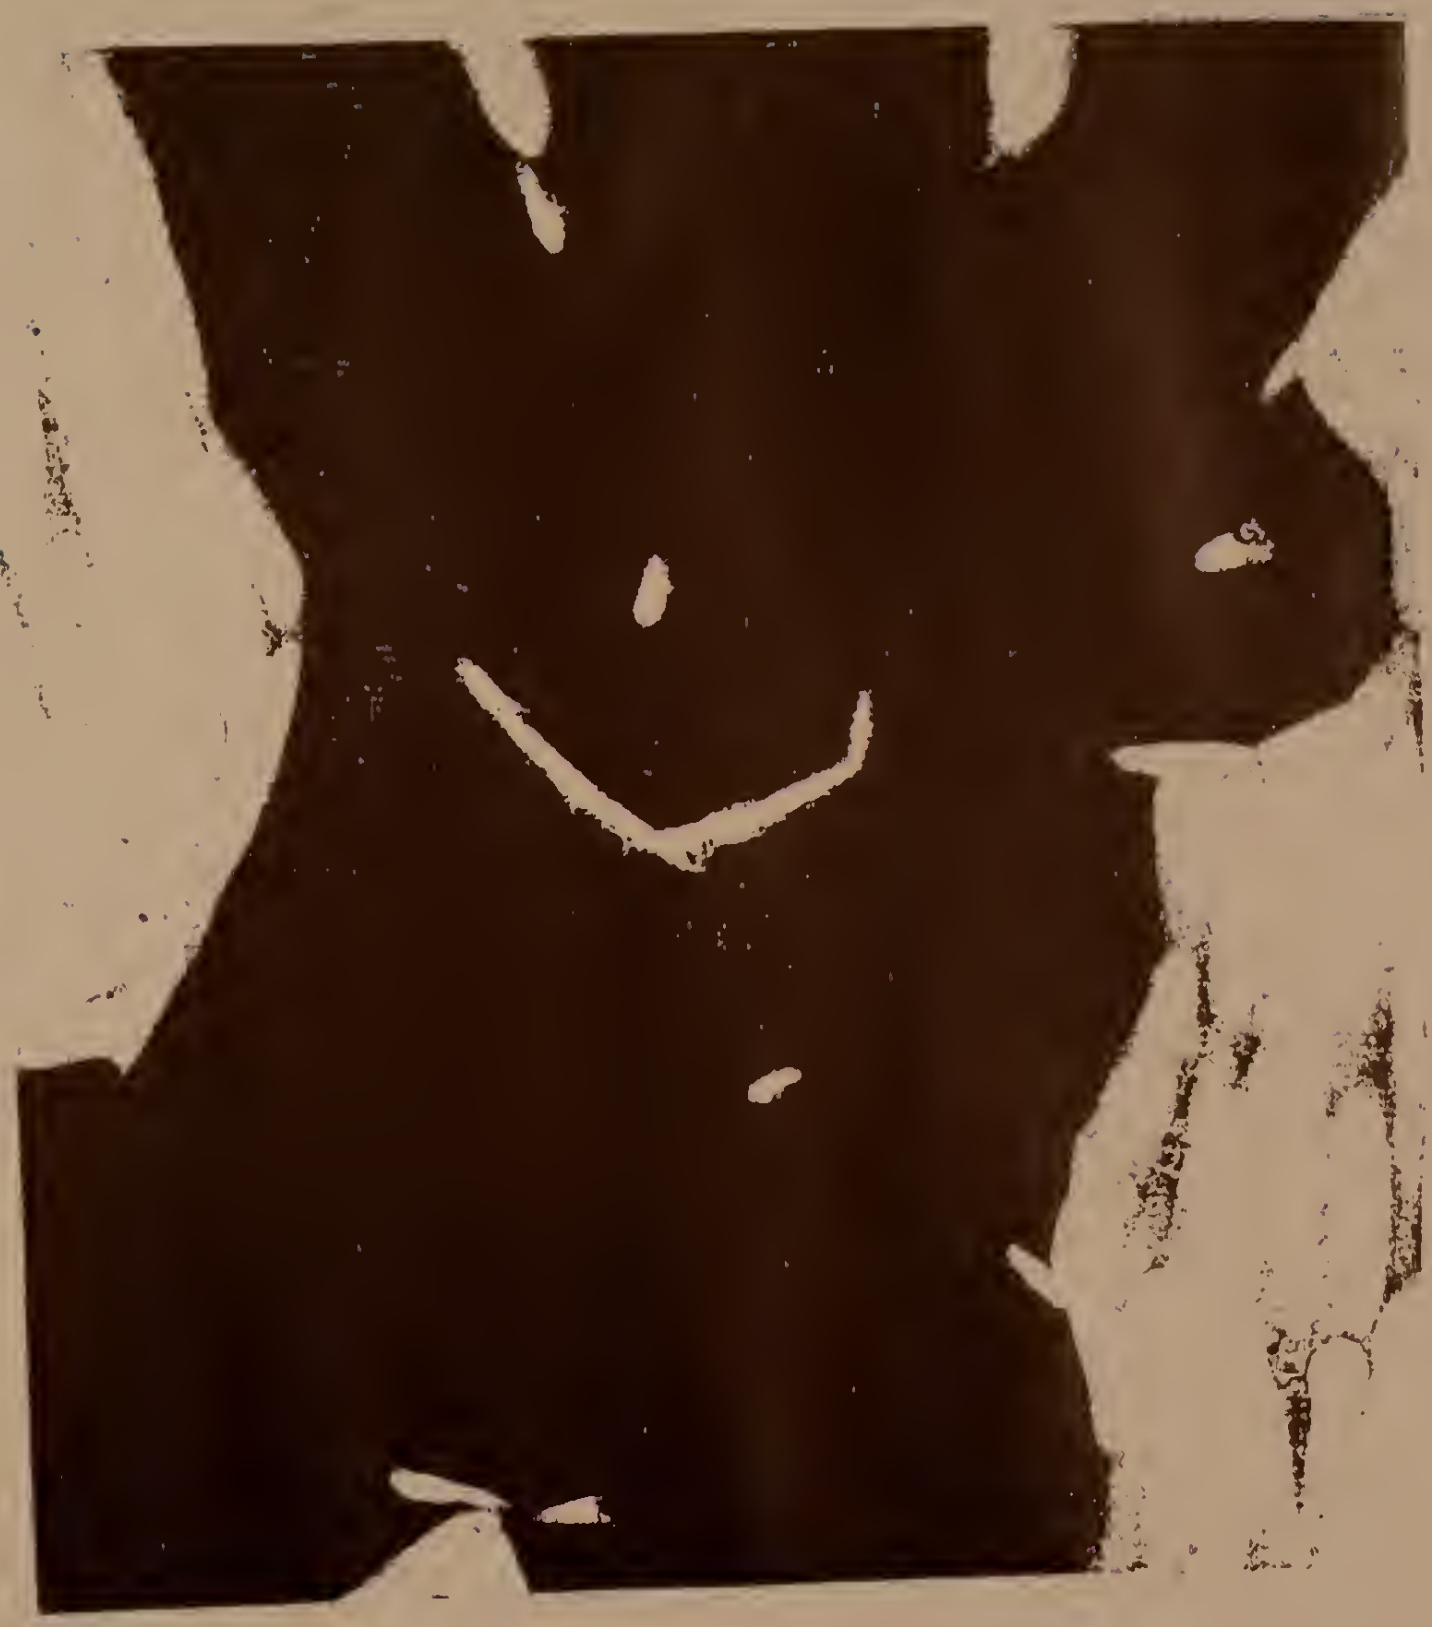
Ta-ta-ta-taa!



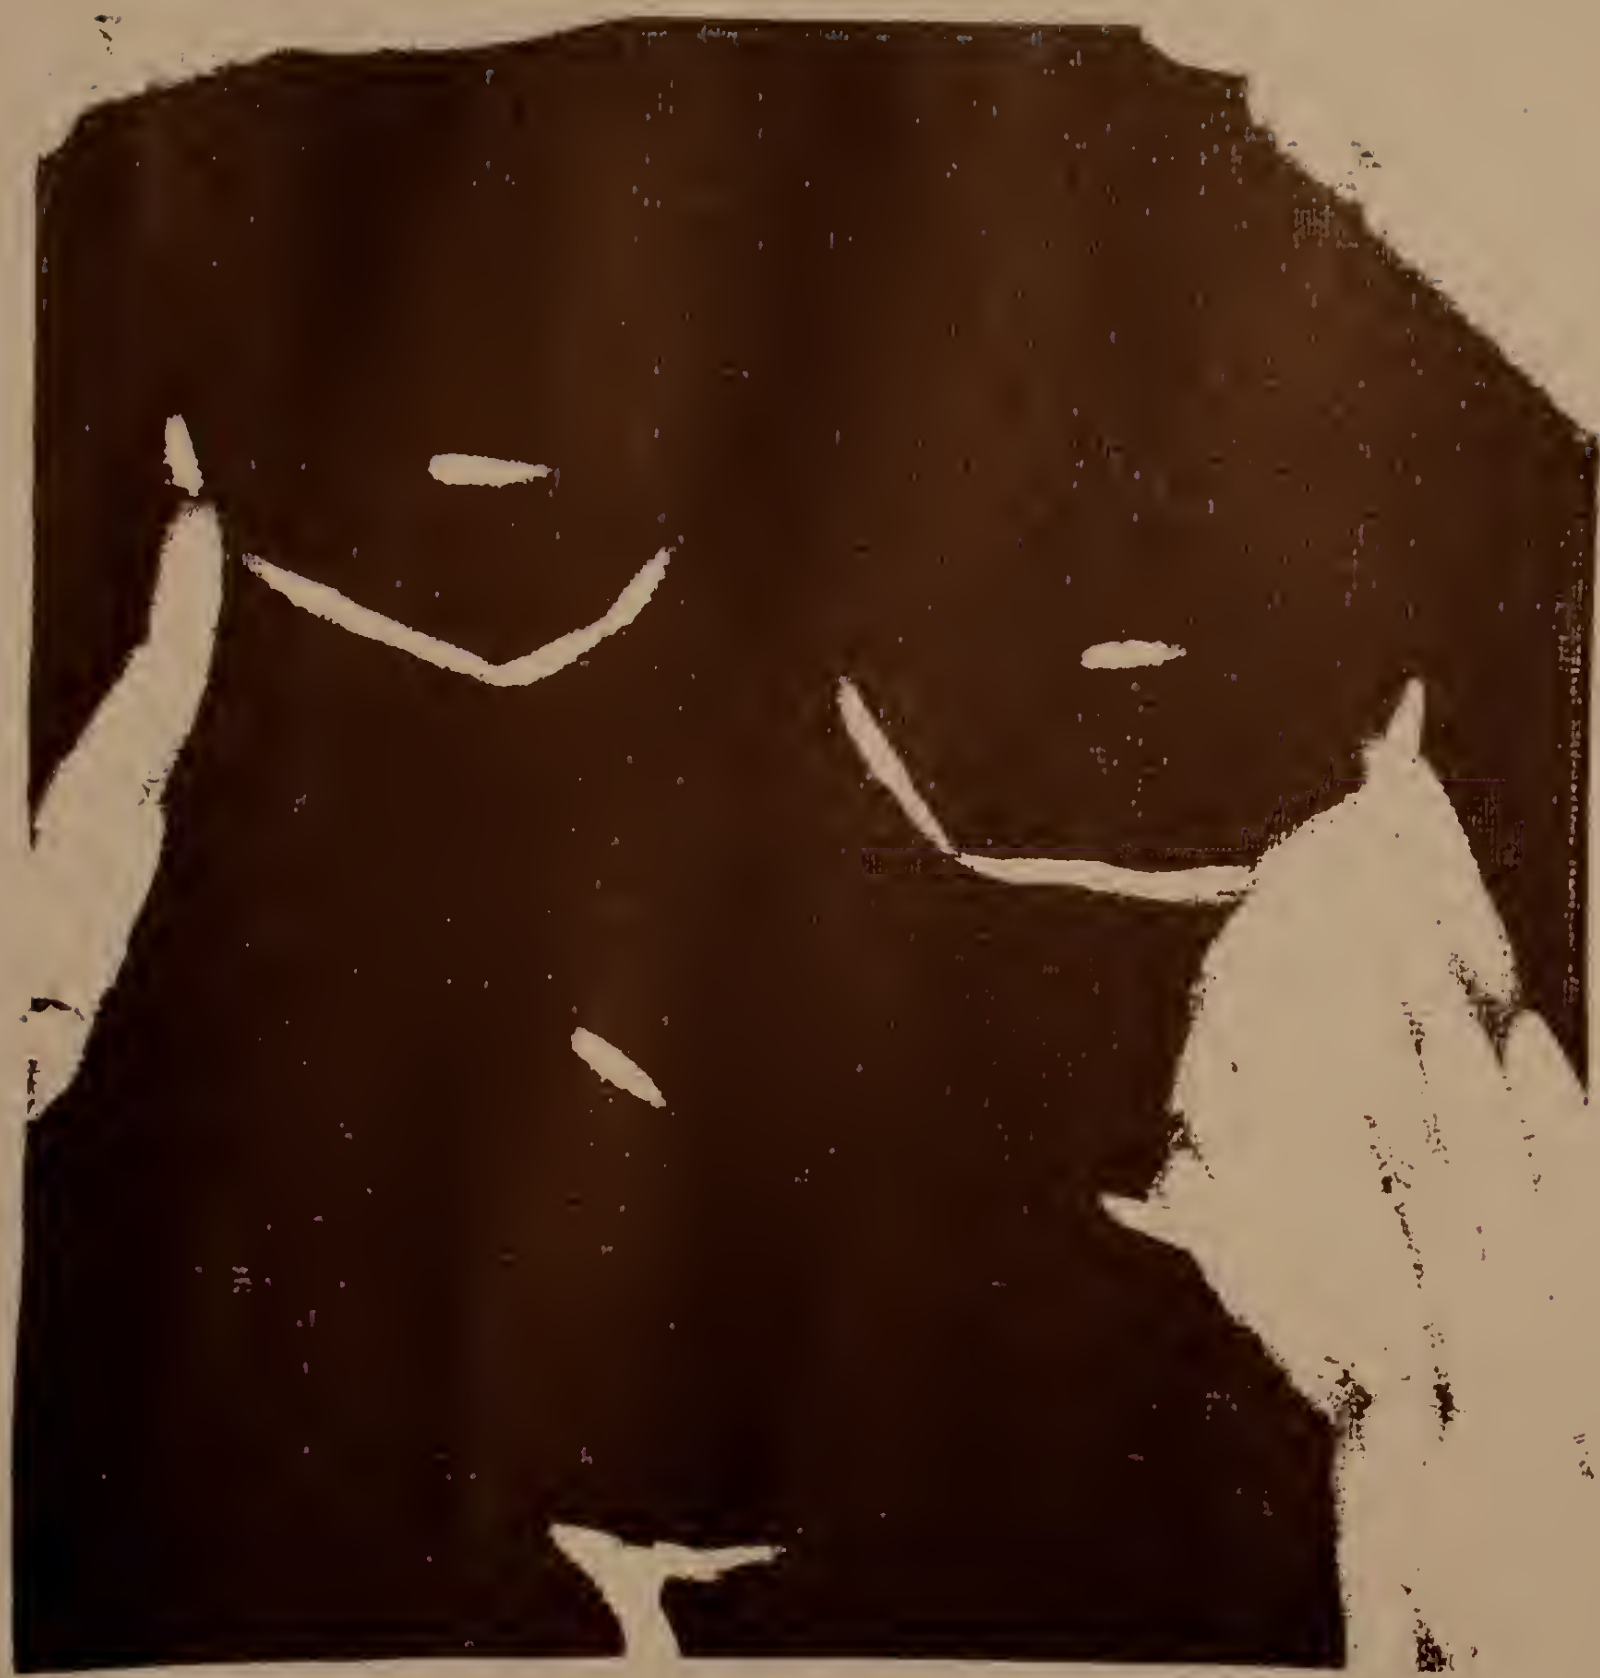




married her



Ta-ta-ta-taa!



planted a tree

and I saw the Horse!

I said bye-bye & followed the Horse!

I caught the Horse

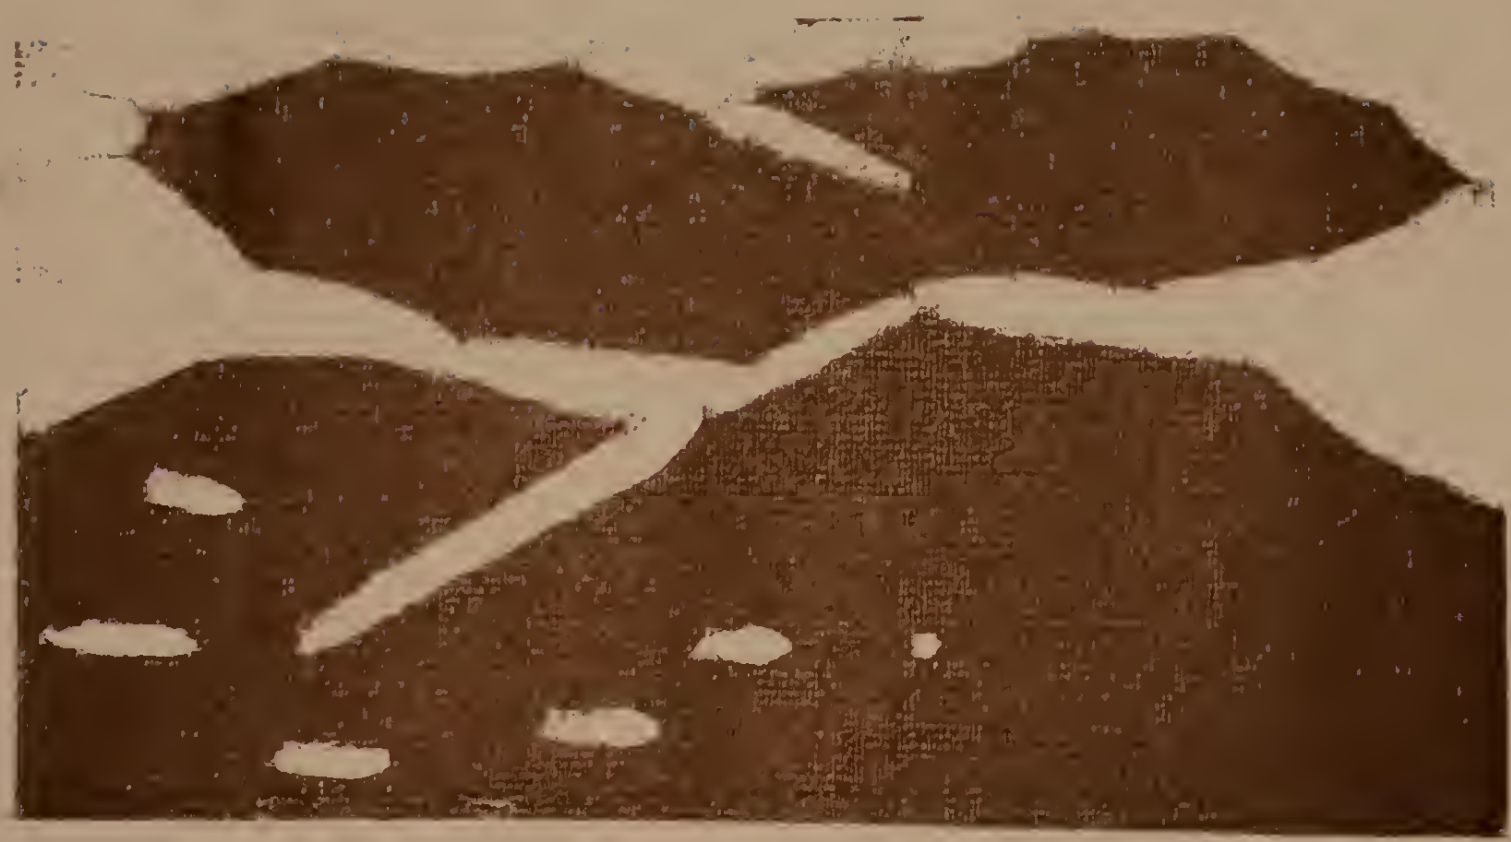
I fenced it

I sold it

I rode it

I slaughtered it

I ate it



and the day after

I saw the Horse

flying through the sky!

Ta-ta-ta-taa!

Colophon: relief cuts and text by Peter Schumann, woodtype kindly lent by Jan Meyer of Cowles Press in St Johnsbury, paper is Fabriano Miliani Ingres, printing & binding by Susan Johanknecht and Claire Van Vliet at The Janus Press in an edition of seventy-five copies

This binding can be unscrewed so that the whole sequence of pages may be displayed